Depart on what day? When does congress go into session on the 6th? Should be there before hand so that the congress has to make their way through throngs of Trump supporters to get to the joint session.

The have their own subway system into the capitol from other office buildings, so they never have to see the people at all. Look up Capitol Subway System. The only time they use cars is when they want a carefully controlled photo op.

I highly doubt any of them will use cars on the 6th.

Good correction. Regardless, I think it will be known that there are masses descended on DC, and that's a better motivator than it being AFTER the vote tally. My point was just there isn't a date in the post.

I would think people will begin congregating in the general area on the 5th or even earlier. If I were going to be there, I would be rolling into DC with the dawn's early light to get a good spot myself. I have been to DC events before, and rolling in early is always advisable, if you are driving in rather than taking a train or walking in. Parking goes fast.

Sadly since this is coming in the middle of a move, we will only be congregating locally in my area with other patriots in support.
